

The Eighteenth Oxford Naval Symposium

Saturday 21st May 2022 St Anne's College, Oxford.

'Revenge!'

Incorporating: 'The Alan Villiers Lecture'

Morning session:

Vaughan Michell: 'Marking 20 years of the BNRA'

Steve Dunn: 'Kings, Queens, Ships and Sailors: 100 Years of Royal Fleet Reviews 1814-1914'

James Walters: 'The Life and Times of Nathaniel Portlock 1748-1817'

William Mowl: 'HMS Thunderer 1911 and the Thames Iron Works'

Anthony Lewis: 'Drake's Revenge 1577-1591'

Afternoon session:

Kit Villiers: Introduction to The Alan Villiers Lecture

Joanna Mathers: 'David R Macgregor: renowned maritime historian, draughtsman, photographer, archivist and publisher'

Bill Cumming: 'The Falls of Clyde, the First and the Last: History of the Falls Line ships 1875-1920'

Sim Comfort: 'Revenge at Trafalgar'

David Griffiths: 'Naval Small-craft: Rebuilding Maritime History'

Vaughan Michell: 'A 20th Century Revenge'

Displays of Naval items, prints, models and maritime history
Plus, a sale of pre-owned naval and maritime books

Registration 09.15

10.00-13.00 morning session,

13.00 Lunch

14.00-17.30 afternoon session

Day conference £49.00 to inc. coffee, lunch, wine and tea

Half day, without lunch: £15 to inc. coffee/tea

To book: phone 07790 928825

email: secretary1@britannia-naval-research-association.org

www.britannia-naval-research-association.org

Artwork by and with the permission of Geoffrey Huband